Vision

Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions mission is to influence the building and sustaining of strong families and strong generational heritages by promoting a biblical worldview and a God first lifestyle. All of the pain, grief, sorrow and sin in the world is the result of just one wrong decision. Every day we make hundreds of decisions that determine what we say and do. CFADD seeks to educate the public of the benefits and consequences of decisions that affect them and their loved ones, and to provide resources, strategies, and principles that would aid them in making good sound decisions. For no good action can be taken unless it is preceded by a good decision, and each good decision is an investment in a great future.

Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions strives:

- To combat misinformation and ignorance that effects our families negatively.
- To assure all children have dedicated mothers and fathers to protect, nurture and guide their development toward their adulthood.
- To combat all cultural ideologies and/or behavior that disrupts the nuclear family.
- To reduce the result of media violence against the family.
- To promote equality and justice for all babies conceived in the womb.
- To promote abstinence before marriage and monogamy.
- To enhance the desirability of marriage and family life.

Only by restoring the biblical foundations of the home, can the church and society flourish. Our journey together to restore the foundations of the families and repair the breaches has just begun. (Isa 58.12) Through CFADD, you may become a part of the revival of biblical family values. Together we will see the heart of the fathers turn to the children and the heart of the children to their fathers and an end to the curse of fatherlessness in the Earth (Malachi 4:6).

Apostle Tommy E. Quick

Founder and President
Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions

History

The year 2020, was full of unprecedented challenges to the world's health, social and economic systems. For our founder, Apostle Tommy E. Quick, it began with physical and social isolation, as he was dealt a tremendous injustice and went through possibly the greatest trial of his life. During this period God was not silent but spoke very distinctly regarding the need to restore families. Inspired by God's personal dealings with him as well as prophetic words from various men of God including Bishop Patrick L. Wooden, Apostle Quick swiftly went to work on the vision God put in his heart. As a result, Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions, called CFADD for short was birthed in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

In April, of the same year (2020), the first planning sessions were underway, and the team worked diligently on the administration, branding and structure of the new organization. CFADD quickly launched a website and social media presence, capturing over 1,000 followers in just a month. In September, CFADD was officially established as a non-profit 501 c3.

On October 13, 2020, CFADD sponsored its kickoff event and first CFADD Family Rally in partnership with The Beacon Drive-in, a landmark in the Spartanburg community since 1946. The rally featured over 250 participants who traveled from various parts of the tri-state area, as well as speakers from both North and South Carolina. This was just the momentum CFADD needed! The community rallied around the cause, looking for opportunities to volunteer their time and donate to a worthy mission. Following the rally, CFADD expanded into North Carolina, with its first CFADD Chapter in Burlington, North Carolina. In February 2021, CFADD sponsored a 199 Men Conference, with nearly 100 men in attendance, focused on the importance of men in the family and society. Throughout the months of March, April, and May, CFADD expanded into Virginia with a CFADD Chapter in Portsmouth, VA and established additional chapters in Zebulon and Asheville, North Carolina, Greenville and Greenwood, South Carolina, and Miami, Florida. The first college chapter was approved for operation on the campus of USC Upstate in April. During this period, CFADD also piloted its 10-week family ministry program in 4 locations.

Seeing a need to reach children with the message of family, CFADD4Kids was conceptualized in an effort to educate children in the elementary age groups through the teaching of character attributes. 10 sessions have been recorded to date! CFADD4Kids also implemented "CAMP CFADD", a four-week Summer Camp for ages 8 to 15. In less than a year, CFADD has done great things and impacted many including the families that were recipients of CFADD's Christmas give-a-way. As we stand on the cusp of our first annual CFADD Family Conference, we are truly grateful for what the Lord has done and plans to do! It is our goal to see 50,000 families strengthened as we live out our mission of influencing the building and sustaining of strong families and strong generational heritages by promoting a biblical worldview and God First lifestyle.

CFADD is growing and will impact the nation for Christ.

Greetings in Jesus Name,

In recent history we have seen tremendous changes sweeping through our nation. Regardless of political affiliation, age, sex, or economic status, most can agree that this nation is in trouble. With prosperity unmatched in the world, technology never seen any time in history, and more educated citizens than ever before, there is more depression, confusion, brokenness. The proposed solutions to these problems are more human freedom, more social and racial justice, more allocations, as well as the undoing of the foundations of our society such as the family and human sexuality.

I propose that the problem is not economic or educational, but that the foundations are being destroyed. The building block of any society is the Biblical family. The devastation of broken families is the root of all suffering in society. The question was asked in Psalm 11:3 “If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?” Fellow believer what is our response? Will we do nothing as we witness the foundations of our lives and families being destroyed? God forbid. For the Lord has ordained that “they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, the repairer of the breach, the restorer of paths to dwell in (Isaiah 58:12).

The last day move of God will come through the restoration of the biblical family. As stated in Malachi 4:5-6 “Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.” I believe it is because of God’s demand for the restoration of the family He has birthed Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions (CFADD) with its various components to influence the building of strong, sustainable families through the promotion of a biblical worldview and a God First lifestyle.

We are indeed grateful to God who has entrusted us with such an important mission and to all who make your talents, time and resources available to pursue God’s will to save our families and possibly our nation through CFADD. My family, your family, and all families in the Earth is God’s concern, and therefore should be our concern as well. If you are not involved, I want to encourage you to join us in this fight for our families.

Sincerely,

Apostle Tommy E. Quick

ADVANCING FAITH, FAMILY, AND FREEDOM

August 1, 2021

Dear Apostle Quick,

It is with absolute joy and celebration that I write to congratulate you, and the ministry of Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions, on the inaugural conference which brings you together. The Word of God declares in Proverbs 29:16, “where there is no vision the people perish.” The vision, along with the passion and heart that God has provided through you, countless lives are being impacted today, and for eternity.

In a relatively short timeframe you have already started to put in place all the building blocks to help instruct and inspire the lives of children, teenagers, and even college students at USC Spartanburg. Through your Family Life Institute churches are discovering ministry and providing instruction to all members of the family. Truly, the Kingdom of God is being impacted as Christ Jesus is exalted, and communities will reap the blessed benefits.

Thank you for being salt and light to our culture today, as they desperately need to hear the Word of Truth, giving hope and real joy beyond what the world system can understand. Thank you for being a true partner in the cause to stand for our faith, our families, and our freedom. On behalf of all of us at Family Research Council, please know our prayers, support, and encouragement for God’s power and His Presence to be all over the ministry of CFADD in the years to come.

In His Grace,

Dr. Mark E. Harris

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It is with joy that I write this letter to address you, the leaders, and delegates of the first, Christians Families Against Destructive Decisions (C.F.A.D.D.) National Conference. I believe that this conference is ordained by God to serve its stated purpose of bringing the family together.

If there is ever a time that we need to rebuild, repair, reunite and respond effectively to the confronting today's families, that time is now. The family is God's first institution. The rise and fall of our churches, schools, governments are predicated upon the health of the family. It is the foundation upon which all institutions are built. We must fight for our families. For this cause, I salute the visionary and founder of C.F.A.D.D., Apostle Tommy E. Quick for his tireless work to improve the plight of today's families. Malachi 4:5-6 says, "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse." Apostle Quick is coming in the spirit of Elijah to turn the hearts of the fathers and children of this generation to the God of the bible and to each other. May God reward and bless your efforts.

I am proud to be a board member and among those who will speak at this conference. Also, I sit in anticipation to hear from the entire lineup of speakers and presenters. Every speaker and every topic is divinely designed to make a difference. If we all take hold and apply what is taught throughout this conference, we will experience the glory of God in a mighty way during the conference and beyond.

In His Service,

Bishop Patrick L. Wooden, Sr.

Our Purpose

CFADD 4 Kids's purpose is to strengthen families and develop strong generational heritages by fostering a fun learning environment for children to grow, learn and build. The content of CFADD 4 Kids is designed as a tool to assist parents in educating and developing their children's positive character traits by helping them understand God's plan for the biblical family, family roles and how to strengthen family ties through biblical principles, for a brighter future. The rapid changes in moral and societal values threaten the future of our children. CFADD 4 Kids bridges the gap between everyday decisions and choices and the understanding of benefits and/or consequences of those decisions and choices.

How does this program work?

CFADD 4 kids is an elementary and middle school online virtual program that aims to teach foundational lessons on good character. Topics are age-appropriate and are presented in a way for children to understand at the basic level. Programming includes lessons drawn from biblical text and interactive games to engage each child and capture their attention for learning! CFADD 4 Kids also offers a rewards program for dedicated participants. The program is fun and safe and provides effective teaching applications that will last a long time.

CAMP CFADD

2020 CFADD Rally Highlights

“Rally for the Family”

Presenters: Dr. Christopher Stone, Pastor James Parker, Apostle Tommy E. Quick, Bishop Patrick L. Wooden Sr., Mr. Steve Lefemine, Dr. Tony Foster, Apostle Reginald Holiday, Mr. Caz McCaslin

“Hundreds of people from the Carolinas, Virginia, and all denominations braved the rain and storm to witness the first ever CFADD Rally for the Family on Saturday, October 10. People showed their love for Christ and support for the Biblical family institution which Christ established. The Lord met us as speaker after speaker spoke to the issues confronting our families and the need to return to the biblical blueprint so we may enjoy his purpose and blessing for our lives. It was an overwhelming success.”

- Apostle Tommy E. Quick, Founder of CFADD

“With all of the attacks on the nuclear family: the redefining of marriage, the new requirements of what it means to be a male or female, the constant lowering of the bar, the challenges to the authority of the father, missing fathers whether physically or otherwise, the growing acceptance of things LGBTQ, government taking place of moms and dads, more sports and entertainment, less church, and no family time just to name a few. Your leader, Apostle Quick is saying despite all these things lets put the family, the institution of the family back in its proper place in society and back in the church, lets raise the bar. God reached down to Spartanburg, SC and gave the mighty Apostle an ambitious and magnanimous vision at the Promised Land. Is that not what we are doing today. CFADD is of God.”

- Bishop Patrick L. Wooden, Sr., Prelate of NC3rd COGIC

CFADD Conference 2021

- Topic Descriptions -

The Case for CFADD: Equipping the Family for Success

Apostle Tommy E. Quick, Visionary & Founder - Monday, August 16, 2021 at 11am

God alone sustains us at every moment in every stage of life; infancy, childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and old age: and God has ordained the family as the primary means through which he does this.

Fasten Your Child's Moral Seatbelt

Evangelist Lee Hil - Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 2pm

District Missionary Jasmine Gorie - Thursday, August 19, 2021 at 2pm

The home is the physical, mental, spiritual, and moral training ground for the child. CFADD is giving parents a five-pronged approach to establishing a moral compass based on Biblical principles: ministry, evangelism, medical, education, worship center.

Over Sexualization of Society

Dr. Christopher Stone - Thursday, August 19, 2021 at 2pm

Our journey together to restore the foundations of the families and repair the breaches has just begun. Through CFADD you will become a part of the revival of biblical family values. Together we will see the heart of the fathers turn to the children and the heart of the children to their fathers and an end to the curse of fatherlessness in the earth. Malachi 4:6

The Kingdom Family Ministry and Generational Blessing

Richard Lineweaver - Friday, August 20, 2021 at 11am

Abraham was chosen, because God knew that he would command his family and lineage. There is a generational blessing / empowerment that we can command over our family, or not, depending on what we do or don't do. A Kingdom family, is to be an orchestra of special instruments that God will anoint, equip, and use to create a symphony of worship, and acts of service unto God, in obedience to the leading of His Holy Spirit. We will unfold Kingdom truths that will help equip families to grow in their God ordained pursuit of becoming a Kingdom family. Just as family salvation was God's plan, concerning the Philippian jailer in Acts 16, so is Kingdom family ministry and generational blessing / empowerment.

The Effects of Family Breakdown on Poverty

Dr. Goldie Wells - Monday, August 16, 2021 at 3pm

Contrary to popular belief the greatest contributor to poverty is not lack of education but the breakdown of the family. Data suggest that the quickest way to prosperity is for a man and a woman to get married. The married man tends to make more money over the course of their life than the single man.

How the Breakdown of Family Affects the Aging and Disabled

Dr. Ugoji Adanme Eze, International Advocate - Friday, August 20, 2021 at 5pm

People are living longer, and each year the over 80 group is making up an increasingly greater portion of the population. Often with aging comes disabilities which puts an emotional, physical, and financial stress on the family.

The Incarceration Trap

Dr. Derryck Green - Monday, August 16, 2021 at 4pm

Apostle Alvin Deal - Thursday, August 19, 2021 at 1pm

As incarceration was once something to be avoided and rejected, in some communities it is now expected and accepted. There is a rising trend in incarceration numbers for black males and females over the past three decades. The trend is so high that it can only be described as a pattern of mass incarceration. According to recent data, blacks are incarcerated five times more than whites making up nearly half the prison population. Additionally, Black youth have the highest rate of involvement in the juvenile justice system. A return to the traditional family is a fundamental part in reversing this devastating trend.

Combatting the Culture of ME. Building a WE environment in your home

Elder Sumner Benton and Evangelist Breanna Benton - Wednesday, August 18, 2021 at 1pm

Society is intentionally promoting the individualization of each person leading to the breakdown of the family. The me, myself and I mentality has no consideration for how it affects others and individual happiness is valued above what's best for the family. Parents must purposely pursue preservation of the family-centered atmosphere of their homes to ensure strong families and generational heritages.

Why Violence is Rampant in Our Communities?

Dr. Fred and Karen Coffee - Wednesday, August 18, 2021 at 5pm

Coach Rex Tonkins - Friday, August 20, 2021 at 4pm

Violence is often a cause and effect of the breakdown of the family unit. It is exhibited through spouse abuse, child abuse, elder abuse, mass shootings, rioting, murder, suicide, among other things. The destructive decision to use violence as a resource for solving issues within the family unit negatively impacts both children and adults across generations. An unbroken and supportive family is key to helping alleviate the heartbreak and tears caused by the unbridled violence plaguing our families and communities.

The Breakdown of Roles

First Lady Pamela Wooden - Monday, August 16, 2021 at 2pm

The understanding of roles between male and female, adult and child is basic and fundamental. The physical, emotional makeup of all, are given by God for specific functions that are necessary for the sustainment of family and society. What is simple has become a complex point of discussion. While some feel these developments are harmless, data prove it to be detrimental to the people involved. When individuals reject the basic order of God, they lend themselves to unwelcomed side effects such as, divorce, broken relationship, absentee fathers, lack of parenting, disobedient children, and unwanted influences.

Devaluing of Marriage

Worship Pastor Joshua Quick - Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 3pm

Superintendent William Cooper, III - Friday, August 20, 2021 at 2pm

Marriage was created as the foundational relationship for all of the world. All other relationships in society come from the father-mother relationship. Excellent marriages are the bedrock of strong societies, for they are the structures of strong households. To lessen its value and destroy the institution of marriage in turn destroys society. Covenant marriage is devalued and seen as bondage. Cohabitation, casual sexual relationship and I can do bad by myself mentalities are on the rise and has weakened the very foundation of the family.

How Christianity Effects Marriage

Apostle Reginald Holiday - Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 6pm

Marriage is God's idea. At its best, marriage is a divine institution ordained, defined, and directed by God. Christianity's distinct difference on marriage is markedly distinct compared to a marriage not governed by this faith. In this thought-provoking and yet practical workshop, you will learn or be reminded of Christianity's powerful and beneficial effects on Marriage. You will be encouraged and equipped to have a Kingdom Marriage instead of a civil union. Those who desire more than a healthy or happy marriage and who want a holy and joyous God-honoring marriage must be equipped to apply their faith in Christ to their union. Kingdom marriages are not accidental! They are marriages that are established, maintained, and sustained under the Lordship of Christ, His Word, and two lives that are more desirous of pleasing God than they are to conforming to the ways of the devil, the world, and the flesh.

LGBTQ+: The Absurdity of Modern Culture

Dr. Robert Foster - Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 5pm

With the rise in the promotion of gender confusion, homosexuality, lesbianism, and other sexually unacceptable behaviors, society and our culture, in particular, has experienced a great breakdown in our families and the family unit. While some feel these recent developments are harmless, data prove them to be detrimental to the wellbeing of our families and way of living. Promoting and living this type of lifestyle is absurd in that it does not promote natural family growth, or the balance needed to raise healthy children. Both the man and woman provide vital roles and nurture in the family, and the biological makeup of mankind proves this without a shadow of doubt.

The Enduring Strength of the Black Family

Pastor Dean Nelson, Frederick Douglass Leadership Institute - Monday, August 16, 2021 at 1pm

For decades, if not centuries, the prevailing narrative about the Black American family has been a negative one. Negative stereotypes include, but are not limited to, the assumptions that Blacks do not value marriage, that the majority of Black fathers do not take responsibility for or involve themselves in the lives of their children, that Black parents are not sufficiently attentive to their children and do not value or invest in education, and that Black families are not interested in or willing to adopt children. While there is much work to do to strengthen all Americans families, critics have failed to recognize the enduring strengths of the Black American family. Faith and church attendance are associated with family health and strength. Black Americans remain more religious the average American. The future of the Black American family will be built by Black Americans on these strengths.

Just Being There: A Parent's Guide to Raising Children

Terris Todd, The Heritage Foundation - Monday, August 16, 2021 at 5pm

Parents are faced with the task of raising children, but of course it doesn't come with a manual. This workshop will focus on providing parents with ideas on how to raise children according to the word of God, but also me sharing personal experiences of a successful outcome of doing things God's way. Finally, parents will also be provided with resources on civics education to be shared with their children as well that provides a hope for a brighter future around our shared values as a people.

Lord Help, I'm a Single Parent

First Lady Nadine Stone - Wednesday, August 18, 2021 at 3pm

Being a single parent must be one of if not the hardest task or assignment for any woman or man to undergo. This arduous task, lonely journey and seemingly impossible assignment does not discriminate against age, color, gender, economic condition or geographical local. As the saying goes, the struggle is real for all.

The Ignored Pandemic of Substance Abuse

Dr. Dionne Harrison - Wednesday, August 18, 2021 at 2pm

Substance abuse is both a cause and effect when considering the breakdown of the family unit. Regardless of economic status, it's an all-too-common problem as a great number of homes and families are destroyed because of the use of both legal and illegal substances. A positive and well-structured home is extremely beneficial in preventing the abuse of alcohol and drugs in our homes, communities, and society.

The Education System: Protecting Your Children

Dr. Mary Murray - Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 11am

Dr. Raymond Williams - Thursday, August 19, 2021 at 3pm

This session endeavors to enlighten individuals about many of the secular agendas that are taking place in our public and private schools and how as parents we can prepare to combat these ideologies at home and protect our children. Parents send them to learn academics, but the school is influencing their character, morals, and spirit through the teaching of humanism, sex education (alternate lifestyle acceptance), anti-patriotism, creation theories (evolution, big bang theory, etc.) and the like.

Where is Your Dad?

Superintendent Larry Murray - Wednesday, August 18, 2021 at 11am

Superintendent Willie J. Bamberg - Friday, August 20, 2021 at 1pm

The attack on the Patriarchal Family does not diminish the tremendous value and important role that fathers play in the lives of their wives and children. The absence of fathers has resulted in great devastation on personal and societal levels. In the words of George Herbert "One father is more than one hundred school masters." Without a father to provide protection and instill the morals, values, and knowledge necessary for constructive living, children are left to learn such things from society. When the father is absent, the home is more susceptible to outside influences that encourages destructive behaviors and attitudes. To restore society the family must be restored, and the family will never be restored without the father.

The Effects of the Breakdown of Family on Mental Health

Dr. Kimberly C. Manly - Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 1pm

Dr. Ojinga Harrison - Thursday, August 19, 2021 at 4pm

Destructive decisions and negative family relationships can cause stress and greatly impact the mental health of each member of the family. Research has demonstrated that non-supportive families can destabilize a person's mental health and even cause a mental illness to worsen. Long-term effects in adults, who as children have experienced family breakdown, include problems with mental health and well-being, alcohol and drug use, suicide, lower educational attainment, and abusive relationships. However, studies have shown that positive and constructive decisions within the family can greatly improve the mental health of members within the family - both young and old.

The Effects of Health on the Family Structure

First Lady Valerie Quick - Wednesday, August 18, 2021 at 4pm

A well-structured family is typically healthier and lives longer. A breakdown of roles in family can lead to stress and bitterness, which in turn can directly impact physical health. It has been proven that married men typically live longer than single men, largely due to the major role wives play in the quantity and quality of men's lives. As the traditional major breadwinner, men are essential in providing a safe and healthy environment for their families. A thriving healthy family has a great impact on the condition of each family member, regardless of age and gender.

Wake-up Your Child is Not Going to a Safe Place: Transitioning Your Child to College

Pastor Justin Mercer - Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 4pm

Dr. Kimberly Garth James - Thursday, August 19, 2021 at 11am

When going to college, your child will be exposed to things contrary to the Word of God. Many children raised in Christian homes abandon their values and often never finish college. Preparation is critical to combat the influences that will bombard them with anti-Christian views. A continuous combined effort between parents and their children throughout their collegiate career is imperative to reduce the probability of destructive decisions.

The Family Breakdown and Pop-Culture

Co Pastor Isaac Quick - Friday, August 20, 2021 at 3pm

The entertainment industry isn't just entertainment. It is a powerful influencer of social trends, that shapes our very culture. It has been used to influence the mind of our youth, seducing them to destructive ideologies that steers them away from Biblical establishments like the family. Many celebrities come from broken homes. The need for the affirmation that should have come from the home, gives the powerful a point of manipulation, causing them to compromise and push a culture that perpetuates the very pain they feel. To restore the family culture in society, the influence must be taken from entertainment, and placed back in the hands of the Biblical family.
